GOVERNMENT HOUSE POST FOR GEN. PEARKES LAUDED

—Close Link Here

Wide interest has been aroused all over the Saanich Peninsula and throughout the Gulf Islands in the announcement from Ottawa this week that Major-General Geo. R. Pearkes, V.C., has been appointed Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia. He will be sworn in to his new office in Victoria on Thursday.

General Pearkes has served this district as member of parliament since 1945. He was originally elected for the former Nanaimo and The Islands constituency, in which lay Saanich. At that time he was a frequent visitor to the Islands and was highly respected as a member. In 1953 the constituency was changed and he has since served the Esquimalt-Saanich riding.

For a number of years General and Mrs. Pearkes resided at Brent-here and they resided first in Sidney and later at The Latch, which residence her father named. The elaborate estate is now the property of W. J. Blair. Her father became a noted artist in his later years and many of his oil paintings hang in homes of this district.

CLOSE LINK

General Pearkes courted his wife in Sidney and both have always felt a close attachment to this community. They have one son, John, a barrister in Vancouver.

General approval has been voiced throughout the district on Prime Minister Diefenbaker's choice of General Pearkes to represent the Queen in Government House. Meanwhile political leaders are alert to the probability of an early by-election here to fill the vacant Esquimalt-Saanich seat in the House. It is believed that the Prime Minister would want the constituency represented when the House next assembles, likely in January. Returning officer for this constituency is Major S. S. Penny.

The Election Act states that a constituency cannot remain unrepresented for a period longer than six months after issue of the warrant by the Speaker of the House. This is issued upon notification by two members of the vacancy.

Eyes Turn To Saanich

Eyes of Legionnaires all over southern Vancouver Island will be on Sidney next week. Ceremony of presentation of scholarships presented by the Legion will be at the Mills Road Hall of the Saanich Peninsula branch on Wednesday evening, Oct. 19.

The evening will see the presentation of a local branch scholarship, a Victoria zone scholarship, two provincial scholarships and one Dominion award.

Although taking place at the local branch, the ceremony is strictly a Victoria zone function and Saanich members are hosts to a great part of southern Vancouver Island.

RECORD YEAR AT SANDOWN AS CROWDS JAM ROADS TO ENJOY RACING SEASON

The curtain rang down on the sport of kings on Monday, when Sandown Park closed its gates on its most successful season since it started operation six years ago.

Attendance figures went by the board on Thanksgiving Day when Bill Randall, operator of the track saw the largest crowd to date enter through the turnstiles. Staff at the mutual windows were hard pressed to handle the punters as they lined up for tickets on their favorites.

With post time scheduled for 12:45 p.m., hundreds were in the park shortly after noon. Unprepared for the record attendance, bettors shared programs when a

One Of Three In Canada

Pender Island dairyman, R. Wilson, recently joined a select circle of motorists. Mr. Wilson is seen above with the car he purchased in Victoria. It is a Bond Minicar, manufactured in England and is believed to be one of only three in Canada. Equipped with two wheels at the rear and a single front wheel, the little car will seat four. Powered by a motorcycle engine, it will achieve a speed of 75 m.p.h. and, driven at normal speeds, will maintain a fuel consumption of nearly 75 m.p.g. The small car has gained a considerable following in England, where its economy is a major asset and the licensing regulations provide for a reduced excise fee in respect of a three-wheeler. The island dairyman called in at The Review office last week to display his new car.

Warren Convinced Of Need For Civil Defence Precautions

There remains no such provision today as an air raid shelter. The shelters advocated by the Dominion government and the majority of those constructed by local authorities are not air raid shelters but fall-out shelters.

This was the conclusion of Councillor P. F. Warren, of Central Saanich, who attended a civil defence meeting of municipal leaders in Edmonton recently. Councillor Warren attended in place of Reeve H. R. Brown who was unable to be present.

The trend of the discussion at Edmonton left Councillor Warren with no delusions as to the efficacy of an atom bomb. It was explained that even the initial bomb used in Japan killed 200,000 people. Today's equivalent of that bomb is many times more potent, he learned, and can be fired before reaching the ground, producing a still more widespread damage.

Even if not one bomb should be dropped on Canadian soil, the delegate learned, loss of life could run into the hundreds of thousands in this country from the airborne radio-active fall-out.

With the advent of the army into the realm of civil defence a new thinking has emerged in respect of defence, found Councillor Warren. Predominant consideration is not advance protection, but survival.

The Central Saanich councillor has returned home convinced that the fall-out shelter is not only an excellent proposal but may well represent the difference between survival and a lingering death.

Also attending the conference was Reeve G. L. Chatterton, of Saanich.

POSTPONED

Formal presentations of the trophies to the winners in the Sidney and district juvenile baseball league, has been postponed indefinitely. Sponsors complain of their inability to find a suitable hall.

Boer War Veteran Called By Death

Frank Dixon, late residence 1876 Graham St. died suddenly on Sunday, Oct. 9, at his home. Born in Dublin, Ireland, 77 years ago, Mr. Dixon has lived in Sidney for the past 11 years.

During the Boer War, the deceased served with the Royal Artillery coming with this unit to Esquimalt in 1903. He was a member of Victoria Columbia Lodge, No. 1, A. F. and A. M., B.C.R. He is survived by his wife, Lizzie, at home.

Funeral service was held on Wednesday, Oct. 12, in the Sands Funeral Chapel of Roses, Sidney. Rev. Canon F. C. Vaughan-Birch was officiating. Interment followed in the Hatley Memorial Gardens.

COUNCILLOR LAMONT OPPOSES DECISION TO ENGAGE WITHOUT ADVERTISING POST

Councillor R. M. Lamont, of Central Saanich, has expressed a strong disapproval of the action taken on Tuesday evening at a special meeting of the council.

Criticizing the employment of a pumpman on the new water undertaking within his municipality, Councillor Lamont contends that the situation should have been advertised before any decision was reached or an appointment made.

The councillor, who is supported in his views by Councillor Frank Grimshaw, himself absent from the meeting, has invited The Review to publish the following which he presented to the council meeting when the matter was discussed.

"The man in question is of fine character and highly regarded in the municipality.

"He would be ideal choice for council, police, commission or school board but not as a paid employee of the municipality hired without having called for applications. First of all, if for economic reasons we hire on a half-time basis it's not too long before we have a full-time position as water works superintendent doing pump-house and distribution combined.

"Why then can we not give the present half-time duty to the public works foreman along with his present duties and divide the cost between the two departments.

"Then advertise for a full time water works superintendent when the position warrants one and have a man trained as a pumpman to take over if necessary.

"If this suggestion falls then we must advertise for a pump man position.

"I have been asked many times by unemployed men when the position will be available and I have assured them it will be advertised.

Saanich District Ratepayers To Vote On By-law This Fall

—$784,000 For 28 Rooms And Services

New school building by-law will be presented to ratepayers of Saanich School District this fall when property owners will be invited to authorize the expenditure of $784,000 on the construction of new schools and new school facilities. Included are 28 new rooms, alterations, service and equipment.

Ratepayers will be directly responsible for 25 per cent of this cost, 75 per cent being carried by the provincial government.

The new by-law will include provisions not listed in the last two, unsuccessful, by-laws while other items have been removed since the revision of its components.

Largest single item remains the Cordova Bay high school at Wesley Road. Consisting of 14 teaching areas, it is expected to cost $335,000. Three other new schools are scheduled. They are a two-room school at Royal Oak-Lochside; a two-room school at West Saanich Road and Old West Saanich Road and a third two-room structure at West Saanich Road and Bayview Road. At Saanichton a new site is planned on which a one-classroom annex will be erected. A further property purchase is planned at North Saanich on which a three-classroom annex will be erected.

Remainder of the projects envisaged cover modifications, alterations and equipment to existing schools, while new sites are included without plans for immediate construction of schools.

BREAKDOWN

Breakdown of anticipated expenditures shows $65,000 for sites; $605,000 in respect of buildings; equipment will cost another $68,200; architect's fees, $15,000, while the remaining $30,300 is allotted to contingencies.

Sites for schools on which no immediate construction is projected include the following: Prospect Lake, five acres, $7,000; Keating site, addition of three acres, $4,000; Canoe Cove, five acres, $7,000. Total for sites includes $12,000 for a five-acre property at Royal Oak-Lochside; $4,000 for a three-acre addition at Saanichton; $7,000 for the West Road-Old West Road school site of five acres; $20,000 in respect of a 10-acre site for the new North Saanich high school annex and a final item of $5,000 for site improvement at Wesley Road.

This totals rather more than the sum allotted for the purpose, but there remains an unexpended sum of $8,000 from previous by-law funds which will be deducted from the grand total.

Individual school building and alteration costs are listed as follows: Royal Oak-Lochside, $31,000, two classrooms; Beaver Lake, extra classrooms and additions, $12,000; Cordova Bay, additional two classrooms, $31,000. Deep Cove, heating and covered play area, $5,000; Saanichton, classroom annex and heating unit in the old school, $20,000; Sidney, automatic heating unit, $4,000; West Saanich-Old West Saanich Road, two-classroom school, $31,000; Bayview Road, two-classroom school, $31,000; Wesley Road, 14-room high school, $335,000; Mount Newton high school, home economics room, remodelling industrial arts room and library, $48,500; North Saanich high school annex of three classrooms, $40,000; Royal Oak high school, washrooms and administrative facilities, $13,000. The list totals to $605,500.

Final cost is in the provision of equipment. Cost of this item at the different schools is also published here: Royal Oak-Lochside, $2,400; Beaver Lake, $1,200; Cordova Bay, $2,400; Saanichton, $1,200; West Saanich-Old West Saanich Road, $2,400; Bayview Road, $2,400; Wesley Road, $33,700; Mount Newton, $2,500; North Saanich, $7,000; existing elementary schools, $6,500 and existing high schools, $1,500.

When ratepayers of Saanich School District go to the polls this fall they will be voting on a school-building by-law for the third time in a year. In both cases where it has been offered in the past it was rejected.

TWO BIRDS

How to do two things at once was demonstrated Sunday when two young men had to play in a golf tournament at the Ganges Golf Course. They wanted to listen to the ball game at the same time.

So it was that they went round the course in a little red Nash Metropolitan playing from hole to hole while listening to the car radio.

Traffic Sets Record As Highway Is Overwhelmed

Heaviest traffic so far recorded on the provincial ferry service to Tsawwassen was experienced over the Thanksgiving Day week-end.

While the ferries were busy on Saturday and Sunday, the top figures were chalked up on Monday. By 5 p.m. there was a line of cars waiting to board the ferry at Swartz Bay, stretching back as far as Wains Cross Road. By 7 p.m. the line had stretched still further south to the junction with the old highway, north of Sandown race track.

Drivers were remaining in their cars while many passengers walked back to the airport and sought to fly to Vancouver.

Contributing to a desperate situation on the Patricia Bay Highway was the traffic entering and leaving Sandown Park for the last day of the races. For miles south of the track entrance a solid line of cars, packed nose to tail, crawled at a snail's pace or came to a standstill.

Passengers travelling to the Gulf Islands were able to reach their ferry when patrols were established and each driver joining the line-up for the provincial ferry was asked for his destination. Those heading for Salt Spring Island were authorized to overtake the queue and travel direct to Swartz Bay.

More Passengers Use Ferry As Vehicle Traffic Declines

Increase in the number of passengers using the Anacortes ferry service during the month of September, as compared with the traffic in the same month of 1959, was offset by a decrease in the number of cars.

Last month saw a total of 5,276 cars and 16,595 passengers carried. The figures for September, 1959, showed a total of 5,422 cars and 16,127 passengers.

The breakdown shows that last month 2,711 cars arrived at Sidney, of which 615 were Canadian and 2,096 were foreign. Leaving Sidney were 651 Canadian cars and 1,914 foreign cars, totalling 2,565. A total of 8,669 passengers, 2,076 Canadian and 6,593 foreign came in on the ferries, while 7,926, 2,063 Canadian and 5,863 foreign, went out.

The comparative figures for 1959 were 2,595 cars coming in, 925 Canadian and 1,672 foreign, with 2,827 leaving, 997 Canadian and 1,830 foreign. In the figures for passengers last year 7,910 arrived, of which 2,871 were Canadian and 5,039 foreigners. Another 3,006 Canadians left, with 5,211 foreigners, bringing the total to 8,217.

Wanted... A Soccer Fan

Sidney and District soccer committee is looking for a keen soccer fan.

The committee wants to find a man who is enthusiastic about the game and who can at least distinguish between a pair of soccer boots and a hockey stick. The candidate need not be a young man. His duties will be to take charge of the administration of the local soccer teams and to keep a paternal eye on the arrangements.

Any resident of the district who might be prepared to offer a few hours on Saturdays and who is interested in the game is invited to communicate with either Norman Wright at GRanite 5-1421 or Ernie North at GRanite 5-2656.

COUNCIL IS ACCUSED OF SECRECY AT MEETINGS

Protest at the exclusion of ratepayers from a council meeting has been sounded by a Central Saanich ratepayer.

The Review was told that a ratepayer of the municipality was requested by the council to leave the chamber during a council meeting on the grounds that the meeting was not public.

The complainant explains that a notice on the office door stated that a special council meeting had been called for 7:30 p.m. with a regular meeting at 8 p.m.

"That was perfectly in order," he added.

The special meeting was held in committee, he avers and secret council meetings represent a direct contravention of the Municipal Act.

Not only was the meeting out of order, charges the ratepayer, who has asked that his name be withheld, but any action taken by the council during a secret session is invalid.

Sidney Soccer Teams Meet City Players At Week-End

By HALF BACK.

Scrambles and early morning fitters characterized the soccer play over the week-end when all five local teams were in competition with city players in Saturday's matches.

In summary, we won two and lost three. George Laing's Mitchell and Anderson team of 10-year-olds won their Div. 7 game 4-0 at Benson Hill in one half of a double-header which was completed by a 5-0 shut-out to Jack Payne's Sidney Merchants team, also in Div. 7.

Wright's Oil Service team in Div. 6 was beaten 4-0 at the Memorial Park in a game which saw the Sidney boys use all 21 players who turned out. At this stage of the season it is important to both coaches and players that all boys get a chance to get in the games although this does not always produce the best brand of soccer.

Ken Fielding's Sidney Merchants team in Div. 5, playing at the high school, came out on top of a 1-0 score in their game against Esquimalt A.C., while the Sidney Div. 3 team were the victims of a 3-0 shut-out at the hands of the Oak Bay Optimists in a 1 p.m. game at the Memorial Park. In this division Oak Bay is considered the top team and the one to beat for the marbles.

Goal scorers for the locals were Div. 7, Mitchell and Anderson, Ted

BABY BONUS CAN HELP TO BUY COLLEGE EDUCATION
Most parents are only too well aware that it takes a good deal more than brains for a boy or girl to go to college. That's why far-sighted mothers and fathers who want to give their children the best possible in life plan far in advance for the rising costs of higher education. For many Canadian parents, the monthly family allowance cheque provides an opportunity to lay the groundwork of a savings program designed to cover the costs of higher education for their children. Family allowance cheques for one child, if deposited in a B of M savings account until the age of 16, will total more than $1,600, including interest the bank pays. It's a tidy sum towards a college career. If you're in doubt as to what it might cost in the long run to send your boy or girl to college, why not drop in at the Sidney branch of the Bank of Montreal. Frank Daugherty, the accountant, will be glad to give you a copy of the B of M folder outlining a typical education savings program which can easily be adapted to the special requirements of your youngster.

LADIES' GROUP HEARS REPORT ON RECENT SALE

St. Mary's W.A. at Saanichton held the October meeting last Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Sunday school room.

The meeting opened with singing of the hymn, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee", followed by the W.A. prayer. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. H. Boulet, the minutes were read by Mrs. Rose Chapman.

A report was given on the very successful rummage sale held recently in the old Cunningham Drug Store building in Sidney, proceeds amounting to over $220.

There was a discussion of allotment of funds. With the church being very badly in need of a new organ, the members decided to contribute $100 to the organ fund to go towards completion of the kitchen and washrooms. Members were asked to bring their

Council Refutes Claim Of Increased Water Loan Plan

Alarmed by a report from the daily press, that the Municipality was planning to borrow $140,000 instead of the $83,000, decided by plebiscite for construction of a balancing water tank, a delegation from the Central Saanich Ratepayers' Association was promptly advised by the council on Tuesday night that the municipality has no intention whatsoever of borrowing more than $83,000.

The two representatives of the association were advised that the municipality could not borrow more than $83,000 without another plebiscite. Interest on the sum involved which will be 5 1/2 per cent, over a period of 20 years, will be paid out of the revenue from water sales to the various customers of the water system.

Total sum to be paid at the end of 20 years will be the borrowed $83,000 plus interest, which will amount to $140,000.

The fall sale and tea was discussed, and members decided to have home cooking, miscellaneous, plants and cut flowers and good used clothing stalls. The sale is to be opened at 2 p.m. in the Sunday school room on Saturday, Nov. 5.

It was decided to have a turkey supper for W.A. members and their families on Saturday, Dec. 3.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Claudia Whipple gave an interesting resume of her trip to Ottawa and the annual meeting of the Dominion Board of the W.A.

The hostesses, Mesdames Violet Grimshaw, Daisy Akers and Claudia Whipple served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed by 17 members and one visitor present.

Church Society Takes Part In Duncan Meeting

Seven members of the Saanich Holy Name Society travelled to Duncan on Sunday morning to take part in a rally of the society sponsored by the Cowichan district.

The rally was held at St. Edward's Church in Duncan, commencing with mass at 11 a.m.

The 80 participants then gathered for lunch at the Alderlea in Duncan, when the chairman of each society spoke briefly.

During the afternoon the assembly met in the church hall and heard an address by Emmett Caffrey, president of the Vancouver Archdiocesan Holy Name Society.

Mr. Caffrey spoke of the history of the 800-year-old group and emphasized its significance in the world today. He cautioned his listeners that the most devout and consecrated missionaries in the world today are the Communist propagandists and that no Christian group can afford to be less devoted.

The address was followed by benediction and a sermon by Bishop James Hill of Victoria.

Attending from Saanich Peninsula were Rev. Philip Hanley, E. J. McLoughlin, J. Pensky, Chris Paul, Robert Bader, J. A. Thornhill and Frank Richards.

Sidney Day Handicap Is Run Off As Taken From District

Little Shay, one of Sam Conn's most consistent money-makers, captured the first running of the Sidney Handicap on Wednesday at Sandown Park, and in doing so created a new track record for the six-furlong event.

The three-year-old brown gelding, a six-to-one shot when the mutuels closed, was in contention from the start. Running third at the quarter and second at the half, jockey Bob Cormack brought his mount to the front at the head of the stretch when he slipped through on the rail as the leader ran wide and finished half a length ahead of Foxee Lucee, a 10 to 1 outsider. Silver Leaves, an odds-on favorite, ran fourth.

PRESENTATION

In a colorful ceremony at the winner's enclosure, Sidney Queen Susan Gray, attired in her royal robes and accompanied by her two princesses, Janet Hartshorne and Mary Mollett, presented the winner with the traditional floral horseshoe and a light blue blanket trimmed with white, bearing the words "Sidney Day Handicap, 1960".

M. R. Eaton, proprietor of Crignyle Auto Court, who initiated the move for a Sidney Handicap through Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce, was an interested spectator at the presentation. Mr. Eaton reported a generous response from the business houses and others in Sidney and the surrounding area. The handicap will be an annual event, honoring Sidney and North

A SOUND APPOINTMENT

THE Government of Canada has paid a warm tribute to a man who has long been associated with this area and the people of Saanich Peninsula, will long remember this gesture.

No man has been more widely known and esteemed on the Peninsula and the Gulf Islands than Maj.-General George R. Pearkes, V.C. During a long and distinguished political career he won the support of thousands of voters who were not even in sympathy with his own political leanings. His stature as an individual gained him the acclaim of his fellows on innumerable occasions.

His career as a soldier won him the highest possible recognition of his services, when he was awarded the Victoria Cross. His ensuing career in government brought him the portfolio of national defence. No other candidate for the office of Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia could have brought a more distinguished record to Government House in Victoria.

During a long life-time General Pearkes has given of his best for the country he adopted many years ago. That the country should see fit to recognize his services with this appointment is a fitting close to his parliamentary career.

General Pearkes has been closely identified with this community for the greater part of his life. He has been a familiar figure in Sidney and Saanich Peninsula during that time. His affection for this community is a natural one, for he married a Sidney girl.

Mrs. Pearkes will be warmly welcomed as the new chateleine of Government House. Her natural charm will contribute to the graciousness for which the home of the Queen's representative is already well known.

The appointment is not only a tribute to the man. It is a warm tribute to the community which has been his home for the past many years.

A GRAVE THREAT

THE governments of Canada, federal and provincial, are failing to show a lead in contributing towards lightening the burden of unemployment. Constantly when a position falls vacant in government services applicants are invited to vie for the situation. In many cases, perhaps even the majority of instances, the situation is offered to any applicant, male or female.

This is neither beneficial to the serious unemployment problem facing us nationally, nor is it contributing to society at large.

There cannot be the slightest criticism of offering employment to unmarried women or to married women whose domestic situation is such as to require their entering the field of commerce or industry. Where the employment offered is of a type which can be filled only by a woman, preference should be given to the woman whose household depends upon her earning ability.

Today there is no justification within our society for the employment of married women, particularly in a situation equally suitable to a man, when the employee in question is living with her gainfully employed husband.

There are many who will dispute this stand on the question of employment. Critics will overlook two aspects of the situation. Particular instances can be more heatedly supported than the general picture can be defended. Nevertheless, on a national scale the breadwinner is the basic factor in the national economy and any action which threatens his security is a direct threat to the nation.

A second factor enters into the picture. The wide employment of married women represents one of the major problems of society. Sociologists across the world are acutely aware of the dangers to youth from working mothers.

On neither of these counts can the exclusion of a male candidate in favor of a married woman be justified. Every time the government or employers give preference to the latter category they are driving a knife into the side of society.

A LITTLE GOLDMINE

AT the office of The Review we value our telephonic communications too highly to be unduly critical of the company which provides the service. The various telephones are busy all day and every day. Nevertheless, a careful investigation has indicated that this busy use of the service may be the bread and butter enjoyed by the B.C. Telephone Co., but that the jam is to be found elsewhere.

Patricia Bay Airport is the western terminal for many travellers bound for the capital city or for destinations in its immediate vicinity.

Located in the passenger terminal is a pay telephone installed by courtesy of the company. Probably hundreds of passengers arriving here every month place their coins in the appropriate slot, dial their number and lose their deposit. This is a special telephone, installed for the convenience of aviators. It is, in fact, an excellent little booby trap. Unlike its brethren in many parts of North America, this telephone requires the user to pay during the course of its use. Any monies deposited at the outset are swallowed up in its hungry maw and the user is required to furnish still further funds. He is fooled by the fact that he can hear the subscriber at the number he calls but the distant speaker can hear nothing. Having been thus frustrated, he still can't get his money back.

We have no doubt that if we mentioned the location of the phone to any official of the company, he would chuckle delightedly and explain it is a "real little goldmine".

In other places there are other phones. In Britain many a veteran will recall the Button "A" and the Button "B". These two buttons were found on every pay station and confused half of Canada's male population. They would be a considerable improvement on the instrument at Patricia Bay Airport.

We are curious to learn whether the company has run out of the more customary instruments or whether this particular piece of equipment is left for the transient public for fear that it might find its way into a less rewarding field.

One family here now operates a system which is the only one we know capable of combatting the gold mine. When their telephone at home rings and appears to be dead they know that a friend or relative is at the airport and seeks a lift.

"Nancy Astor", by Maurice Collins. Dutton. 231 pp.

If this biography were likely to be of general interest to the public at large it would infer that Lady Nancy Astor was both more prominent than is truly the case and that she was of a later era. It will appeal to those who have clear recollections of the inter-war period for the memories it will recall. It will appeal to many for its historical value. To the few it will hold an attraction for its explanation of Lady Astor and her triumphant passage through a quarter of a century of parliament.

F. G. Richards

Her name is significant for the fact that not only was she the first woman to take her seat in an Imperial parliament, but that she was foreign-born and had spent her earlier years in her native United States.

In 1919, at the age of 41, Lady Astor decided to seek election to parliament following the British government's passage of a legislation permitting a woman to hold a seat. She was elected with a substantial majority over her nearest opponent.

For the next 25 years she took her place in the House of Commons and became notable for two main features. Never at a loss for words, she could invariably turn an insult or a criticism back on its author. Her second claim to distinction was that she was a consistent advocate of temperance, preaching at every opportunity against the use of liquor.

The story is interesting and amusing, but it suffers from the fact that the writer is a friend of the subject's son and a familiar house guest. While the reader will find the adulation somewhat heavy in parts, the first and consistent criticism to be found is that according to the biographer the lady was never wrong. Even with no knowledge of Lady Astor, this is too uncritical to be realistic and the very slanted picture offered appears thus distorted.

The most interesting aspect of

PARENTS DISPLAY APATHY TOWARDS CUB AND SCOUT ACTIVITIES AS GROUP MEETS

By VIVIAN COWAN
Apathy and disinterest shown by parents of Cubs and Scouts in this and many districts, was very evident on Friday evening, when the annual meeting of the Sidney district group committee was called for 8 p.m. in the Scout Hall. Not enough parents turned up to make a quorum and the meeting had to be postponed until October 24. Election of group committee

DYLAN THOMAS COMES TO CITY THEATRE GROUP

Victoria Theatre Guild will branch out into experimental theatre, October 19 to 22, when they produce "Under Milk Wood" a play for voices by Dylan Thomas.

Here, in the masterpiece completed just before his death in 1958, Dylan Thomas gave fullest expression to his sense of the magnificent flavor and variety of life. A moving and hilarious account of a spring day in a Welsh town, "Under Milk Wood" begins with a dream and ghosts before dawn, moves through a brilliant noisy day of the townspeople, and closes as the "reign of dusk brings on a bawdy night".

Dylan Thomas called it a "play for voices". First audiences agreed with the critics who called it "probably the richest, and certainly the earliest theatre experience of the season".

It will play at the Theatre Guild, on Langham Court, at 8.30, October 19 for members of the guild, and on October 20, 21 and 22, to the public. Programs, which will also double as tickets, will be sold at the door.

The life depicted is probably the fact that it lies so distantly from the common man. The Astor family refers to incomes in the millions of dollars per annum and a wedding gift of $10,000,000 is a mere bagatelle. Perhaps Lady Astor was the closest link in latter times between the fabulously wealthy and the ordinary man. It is interesting, but more for its lightness than its subject. — F.G.R.

members was the main purpose of the meeting. It had been hoped to enlarge the committee to give the executive more people to call upon when needed. Duties of the group committee are not onerous, and meetings are held just once a month. With more parents involved it would make even lighter the small amount of work necessary for the smooth operation of Cub and Scout activities in the district.

In direct contrast to this meeting, was the one held the previous evening at the Experimental Farm Pavilion, when 98 per cent of the leaders and assistants in the whole Tsartlip District were present.

Guests at the head table were introduced by District Commissioner W. Gibson who chaired the meeting. Mr. Gibson spoke on plans and ideas for use during the coming season. An outline of the course to be given was received with interest by the leaders who are always studying and planning better leadership for the boys.

HARD WORK
Guest speaker was H. D. C. Hunter, president of the Victoria Regional Council.

"Some leaders may be born," said Mr. Hunter, "but it takes a lot of hard work and training to become and remain a good leader. A good leader must be self-reliant because he is out in front, and good leadership comes from applying lessons and experience they have learned, to certain situations."

He stressed the fact that "no matter what the situation, do something positive, anything is better than nothing".

Highlight of the evening was the presentation speech made by Nora Cook to a surprised District

"Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it." — John 2:5.

These are the words of Mary, the mother of Jesus. They were spoken at the marriage feast in Cana just after Jesus had rebuked Mary for presuming to tell Him, the Lord of heaven and earth, what He should do. The result was that when Jesus told the servants to fill the water pots they were filled and the miracle of the wine making was sufficient to the need.

There is the current belief, born either of ignorance or indifference, that what Christ said in the Bible is not for us today, that we need not do the things indicated in the Bible. But God's Word is sure and is to endure until the end of time, therefore the message is for all of us and should be lived in our everyday lives and not only read and revered on Sundays.

The force of this statement of Mary's lies in the last two words, "do it". Are we who profess to be followers of Jesus doing the works of Him who sent us? ***

Winners Of Garden Contest Attend To Receive Awards

North Saanich Garden Club kept the interest of both the children and the grown-ups. His remarks were of famous men who had found pleasure and adventure in their gardens.

The minutes of the previous annual meeting and a comprehensive report on the past year's activities were read by the secretary, Mrs. C. Hunt. A report was also given by the tea convener, Mrs. A. W. Smith and the matter of bursaries was reported on by Mrs. W. Newton.

The election of officers was conducted by C. Thomas and results were as follows: president, Mrs. F. J. Eves; secretary, Mrs. C. Hunt; assistant secretary, Mrs. J. H. Currie, and treasurer, Mrs. C. Thomas.

J. Gibbs, of Deep Cove, provided the entertainment which consisted of color slides of scenic views and wild flowers of British Columbia. These covered views of snowy mountain peaks, mountain lakes and some particularly fine views of roadside scenery, with special attention to rare specimens of wild flowers.

The pictures of a beaver dam in the making were made especially interesting by Mr. Gibbs' explanatory remarks, which disclosed the fact that beavers will build a logging road 600 feet long, terminating at the pond in a boom complete with boom sticks.

Mr. Gibbs takes a keen interest in the outdoors, which was proved just as much by the pictures of his own beautiful garden as by those which he had selected to illustrate the varied landscapes in the interior of British Columbia. The slides were very much enjoyed both because of the choice of subjects and for the excellent photography.

Constructive Criticism For Local Toastmistresses

"The Role of the Sea" and the extent of the potential wealth that lies on and under the ocean floor, was the subject of the Oscar-winning speech of Mrs. W. Orchard at the regular meeting of the Madrona Toastmistress Club.

While billions of dollars are being spent on the development of outer space projects, the hidden treasures on our own planet are being neglected, the speaker pointed out.

Submarine passenger travel between continents could be quiet, cheap and safe and broad vistas of underwater commerce were opened when the atomic powered Nautilus sailed under the North Pole, cutting thousands of miles from the long journey from London to Tokyo. No longer fantastic, the realization of this dream, while still open to speculation, could be achieved within relatively few years, she concluded.

Theme of the meeting was "Looking Ahead" and as table topic mistress, Miss Alida Newman led a discussion on the lack of culture in Canada, which concluded with a general feeling of agreement that Canada was gradually building her own brand of culture and looking ahead to the day when it would be second to none.

BOOK REVIEW

Lesson for the evening was given by Mrs. W. Kynaston who won her spur as she outlined the procedure for writing a book review. Regular book reviews will be given by members as preparation for a new phase of work in toastmistress education.

President of the club, Mrs. C. Levar used as the theme of her speech Of Mice and Men, and asked if her members were the type who must work with a definite plan toward an exact result, or were they able to use a pliable course and work toward a desired conclusion, the more sensible plan, for as she pointed out, "the best laid plans—gang aft' o'gley".

Mrs. H. Ker, speech critic pointed out that the body of the speech was very weak, and Mrs. Levar was capable of producing better. Acting as general evaluator for the first time, Mrs. M. Harker took all

Experimental Farm Notes

Insects that are learning to live with insecticides are proving a pest to the farmer.

The onion maggot and the seed-corn maggot have recently demonstrated in Ontario fields their immunity to the aldrin and heptachlor group of insecticides which used to keep their numbers down.

G. F. Manson, officer-in-charge of the Canada Department of Agriculture's Entomological Laboratory at Chatham, Ont., reported the new development and scientists' attempts to regain the upper hand.

He said the insecticides gave excellent results for about five years. Then resistant strains of the onion maggot appeared and almost immediately the heptachlor and aldrin group became ineffective against them.

Earlier investigations had shown that diazinon, thirithion, ethion and V-C 13 were also effective insecticides and these are now in general use. It remains to be seen if onion maggots will develop resistance to them.

The corn maggot has a different history. It developed resistant strains as a result of tobacco farmers' use of insecticides since 1953 to control cutworms. Though this maggot seldom used to attack the crop, damage to tobacco transplants has been severe since the new insect strains appeared in tobacco fields in 1958. The cutworms for which aldrin and heptachlor were applied are still controlled but the seed-corn maggot has now become a pest of tobacco.

Scientists added diazinon to the water used in tobacco transplanting operations and found that it gave promising control of the maggot in preliminary experiments this year. It was also found that strong, well-hardened transplants withstand attack much better than weak, soft plants.

A similar problem has recently developed in the coastal areas of B.C. where the turnip maggot is apparently no longer controlled by aldrin and heptachlor.

SPORTS CAR IS TOTAL LOSS

Anthony Gekthorpe, of Victoria, suffered minor cuts and lacerations when the 1957 Morgan sports car he was driving failed to negotiate a curve on Friday night, Sept. 23.

Travelling south on West Saanich Road, at the Patricia Bay Indian Reserve he lost control over his car and rolled over. After being treated at Rest Haven Hospital he was released. The car was a total loss.

TRUCK DITCHED AT MILLS ROAD

Because the brakes on his 1949 G.M.C. truck failed, Irving Frederick Thompson of Richmond, B.C., went through the stop sign at the corner of Mills Road and Patricia Bay Highway on Saturday night, Oct. 1.

Landing in a ditch, Mr. Thompson was rushed to the hospital for check-up. Arrested for impaired driving he was released on a $200 bail. Damage to the truck was estimated at $300.

Letters To The Editor

NAMING AN OLD BABY

Why bother about another name for the old section of East Road, Patricia Bay Highway?

McDonald Park Road seems a most suitable name since it leads to McDonald Park. What does it matter if there is a very short branch of it called McDonald Road? Surely the average person could distinguish between McDonald Road and McDonald Park Road?

There are highways that have the same number and a branch off them with the same number plus the letter "A" so what is the difference?

If you need another name what about Donald McDonald Road? Rather long I'll admit but since my father, Donald McDonald, at one time owned most of the property in that part of the country and was the first to start it on its way to what it is today—why not?

Now about this name Blue Heron Bay Road. Who unearthed that, I would like to know? I am an old-timer of North Saanich and in all my over 70 years have never heard any of our bays called by that name. Please, someone, tell me where it is and when so named.

Not a very nice name for a road to my way of thinking. Although spelled differently than the fish it still sounds fishy.

Now, neighbors and old-timers, put on your thinking caps and see what you can come up with. A nice sounding Indian name would be nice.

Symphony Tickets For Two Students

October meeting of H.M.S. Endeavour Chapter took place at Sidney school, October 5.

Plans were discussed for the forthcoming bridge to be held this month and also for a cabaret dance on November 19.

The bridge will be upstairs in SANSCHA Hall, October 20. Proceeds from the recent home cooking sale were $30.

Season tickets for the symphony are being donated by the chapter to one student in junior high and one in senior high at North Saanich high school.

It has been reported that many articles from the Red Cross loan cupboard, operated by the chapter, have not been returned. Any person with an article out with which he has finished is asked to return it as promptly as possible.

Mothers Of Grade One Children Are Welcomed

Perfect Indian summer weather combined with an enthusiastic group of P.T.A. members to give a friendly welcome to mothers having children attending Sansbury school for the first time.

The occasion was a get-acquainted tea held in the school on Wednesday, Sept. 28, under the co-sponsorship of Mrs. G. M. Ward.

In her opening remarks, Mrs. D. R. Ross stressed the importance of parent-teacher co-operation. Mrs. D. Butler, president of the Sansbury P.T.A., welcomed the visitors and introduced the teachers.

Tea, served in an attractively decorated classroom, was then enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. A. G. Fry and Mrs. C. Sansbury poured during the afternoon.

First regular meeting of the Sansbury P.T.A. will be held in the school on Monday, Oct. 17, at 8 p.m. A. G. Fry and Miss M. E. Lane will discuss the teaching of arithmetic.

Slogan Is Gaining Wide Note

A little slogan suggested a number of years ago by the late William Larney of Saturna Island is gaining wider recognition. Mr. Larney urged The Review to adopt the slogan "Sail with the sun to Sidney". The catch phrase has been featured in this newspaper ever since.

This year posters advertising the race meet at Sidney's Sandown Park also featured "Sail with the sun to Sidney".

A further compliment to Mr. Larney's slogan is noted in the new publication "Kin Tack", official bulletin of the Kinsmen Club of Sidney. Its front page features a sailboat and the same catch phrase. The vessel is sailing toward a setting sun. "Kin Tack", a bright and cheery publication, is edited by John and Betty Kenaid.

Mrs. R. Graham came over to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. Graham.

New Rate Plan For Islands Offers Reduced Fare—New

New rate structure for passengers travelling on M.V. Island Princess between Gulf Island ports and the mainland will become effective on October 18. By purchasing numbers of tickets at one time, passengers will travel at a considerable saving.

October newsletter of Coast Ferries Ltd. explain the fare adjustment as follows:

"You will remember that a year or so ago, Gulf Islands Navigation Ltd. instituted a special rate for students on the basis of 10 one-way voyages between the islands and Steveston for $15. This has been so well received that we have decided to extend this principle to include bona fide Gulf Islanders and their families. These new tickets will be available on October 18 and the terms under which they are issued will be as follows:

1—The charge for these tickets will be $10 each. They will be good for five one-way trips in either direction between Steveston and any scheduled Gulf Island point.

2—These tickets may be purchased either on the ship or at any of the company's ticket offices.

3—These tickets will be valid for transportation by the purchaser, who must own property in or be a resident of the Gulf Islands, and/or any member of his or her immediate family but will not be otherwise transferable.

4—They will be accepted subject to the foregoing conditions on any one of the company's scheduled trips within one year of date of purchase. There will be no refund for unused tickets and unused portions of the ticket will be void if detached."

Reports showed that this club is now a member of the Photographic Society of America and considerable literature has been received.

Main business was in regard to the Picturama which is planned for November 19 in Mahon Hall, Ganges. Admission programs will be on sale soon, and the public are invited to enter various competitions.

VIGNETTES

Mrs. W. Seymour, in reporting for the committee in charge, said she was working on a series called "Vignettes of Salt Spring" and already has a number of pictures throughout the business section which should prove to be interesting and amusing.

Competitions include the following classes: landscape, flowers and gardens, children and/or animals, people at work or play, portraits, special class, including nature, still life, special effects.

There will be no prizes unless there are six entries in the class. Winning transparencies will be shown to the public on a screen. It is hoped to procure an opaque projector to show print winners. There is a small entry fee per picture. These can be left at Ganges Barber Shop, in sealed envelope bearing the exhibitor's name.

P. Prattenger has invited the club to meet at his Scott Point Marina for a mid-month clinic, on October 15. He has a complete dark-room, finished now and will give talks and demonstrations.

Mr. Dakin, who has been B.C. representative for P.S.A. for 13 years, spoke to the meeting in regard to the national club. He and Wally Wood, of Montreal, are only representatives in Canada. Mr. Dakin told how to get the most help from the organization and gave tips on getting material for shows. A question period proved interesting and informative.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF

SALT SPRING HIGH

By DUNCAN HEBURN.

An assembly was held on October 3 in the Mahon Hall.

Purpose of the assembly was to acquaint the students with the work being done for the coming students' council conference. It was revealed that Marguerite Gear would be in charge of the program; Charles Butt would be responsible for billeting; Lorraine Twa would be in charge of the banquet; and Gladys Patterson would arrange the dance.

The dance for the conference will be held on Friday, Oct. 21.

The dance will be open to all students from grades 7 to 12. Grades 7 and 8 can stay at the dance until 10 p.m. If they wish to stay later, because of transportation difficulties, these students must have a note from their parents giving consent for them to stay until 12:30.

Fred Hanke appealed to the student body to write or find a song for the Salt Spring High. Norma Fennell gave the outline for the H.P.D. girls' project, a school paper.

MINISTER OPENS PRIOR PARK AT PENDER ISLAND

Bright sunshine favored the official opening of Prior Campsite Park, Pender Island on Friday, Oct. 7, when the Hon. E. C. Westwood, minister of recreation and conservation, cut the ribbon before an enthusiastic gathering of 125 residents of both Penders.

Introduced by Capt. W. J. R. Spay, issued on Friday, Oct. 7, at a cost of five cents per copy. The paper deals with life around the school; it has very few jokes and it does not gossip. The students enjoyed the first issue and wish the H.P.D. girls every success in their project.

Beech, Mr. Westwood, speaking from a flag-draped dais, expressed pleasure at the privilege of representing the islands in the legislature for another term.

Special thanks from the Pender Islands and from the province of British Columbia were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Prior, who donated the 40-acre wooded property for the park. Mr. Westwood said it was the aim of the government to perpetuate natural parks and marinas in all parts of B.C., before the march of industrial progress and the spread of the ... STUDENTS LEAD DISCUSSIONS AS PARENTS TAKE PART AMONG SPECTATORS AT P.T.A.

Intelligent, interesting and sometimes surprising were the answers provided by five grade 12 students on a panel at the regular North Saanich P.T.A. meeting.

With Shirley Kerr as the leader, Rolinda Orchard, Bernice Pedersen, Edwin Donald and Robert Seymour answered many questions from the floor.

It was a student program throughout, for included was a most interesting report by Cathy Douma who, as Junior Red Cross delegate from North Saanich, had attended a week-long study session at the U.B.C. Her report included a brief outline of interesting tours of the city, the Red Cross Centre and Blood Donor Clinic, the Children's Hospital, lectures and classes attended and reports that had to be written each day by the 90 delegates from B.C. and American schools.

ONLY SUCH CLUB

The Red Cross Club is the only school service club within North Saanich and each class develops its own project for raising of funds.

Miss T. Miller commended Cathy and said that the report on her work at the session had qualified her as a delegate not only to the next provincial convention, but as a delegate who could attend the international convention to be held in Finland next year.

Reporting on the U.N. seminar held at U.B.C. in August was Edwin Donald, who with Marca Wilson had attended as delegates from North Saanich. He expressed their thanks to the P.T.A. for the donation which had enabled them to attend with the course with 100 other students from the province. The many speakers and lecturers explained the varied work of the United Nations in providing aid to underprivileged countries of the world. The U.N. Club at North Saanich is aiming for membership in the Victoria U.N. Club, and to raise the money needed to "adopt" an underprivileged child in a foreign country. UNICEF Christmas cards will go on sale shortly, and the total profit goes directly to help these children.

The student obtaining 75 per cent or better on his university entrance examination, and who plans to continue his studies that same year, can win the P.T.A. scholarship valued at $100. This year, James Taylor, now a student at Victoria College, was the re-

LOCAL COUPLE IS HONORED

Large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Nicholson, Admiral Road, to extend good wishes on the occasion of their diamond wedding anniversary on Thanksgiving Day. Wives of congratulations were received from the Queen, Prime Minister J. Diefenbaker, Premier W. A. C. Bennett, Hon. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., and many friends and relatives. A wire was received from their nephew who is on the weather ship "Stonetown". Eight friends arrived in a group from Vancouver to surprise the honored couple and to bestow upon them their good wishes.

During the afternoon tea was poured by Mesdames J. L. Ruxton, C. W. Peck, Vaughan-Birch and in the evening Mrs. F. Baker and Mrs. J. Bray presided.

Recipient and was present at the meeting to voice his thanks and appreciation.

"I am very happy to present this bursary in memory of my husband," said Mrs. Harold Johns as she gave to Lorna Boshier the bursary valued at over $200 and presented for the third time by the P.T.A. Council in memory of the late Dr. Johns.

The meeting with President Mrs. W. Orchard in the chair, approved the budget presented for the coming year, and heard plans for various activities to be held to raise the necessary funds. First of these will be a rummage sale in early November for which members are urged to collect and save.

Each year the P.T.A. at North Saanich gives awards to 10 students showing the greatest improvement during the year. D. E. Breckenridge explained that these have included three to industrial arts, three to graphic arts, three to home economics and only one to commercial students. The association approved the addition of two more to commercial students.

Leaves For States

Young Sidney jockey has left for the south following a successful season at Sandown this year. He is Denis Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. J. Anderson, Amelia Ave.

The young jockey rode two winners home on Thanksgiving Day, in addition to nine seconds and three thirds.

He will travel to San Francisco, where he will be engaged in exercising and may ride in a few races.

With the opening of the new season next year, Denis will be back in the saddle at British Columbia meetings.

Mrs. J. S. Rivers, Patricia Bay Highway, is a visitor in Calgary with her sister, Mrs. F. E. King. During her absence Mr. King is visiting Mr. Rivers here.

Bishop Coleman Enjoys Harvest Supper At Island

Over 80 diners sat down to the harvest supper in the Port Washington Hall, Wednesday evening, Oct. 5, given annually to St. Peter's parish by the members of the guild.

The tables, decorated with bowls of autumn fruit, groaned beneath the abundance of turkey, hot vegetables, salads, rolls and relishes.

Rector's warden, Capt. W. J. R. Beech, welcomed Bishop M. E. Coleman and his family, on behalf of the parish. This was the first church supper since the Bishop became resident rector, in charge of the Anglican Church on Pender, South Pender and Saturna Islands.

Bishop Coleman led in the singing of grace. After the bountiful meal, enjoyed by residents of both Penders, he entertained all with his interesting talk on the history of his former church in London, All Hallows.

The church, he explained, goes back to Roman occupation of England, being built on a foundation of Roman fortifications, which were discovered, still preserved, when the church was being repaired after bombings in World War II. In a pillar was found a cross, still intact, used for rein-

As these awards are generally won by the top grades, special crest awards for scholastic ability in the three junior grades was also approved by the meeting.

Members of the school staff and the P.T.A. executive were introduced by Mrs. Orchard during the meeting, and announcements that with speakers such as Willard Ireland for the November meeting, and Dr. Petrie for the December meeting, that everyone should be made aware that P.T.A. meetings are not private, but are always open to the public who are urged to come and enjoy the interesting programs.

forcing in the early days of the church, centuries ago. He explained that All Hallows has a history rich in antiquity, touching both the old and the new worlds.

His present church, St. Peter's, is young compared to the age of known history of Pender Island, but it is already well on the way to a place in the history of this island.

Thanks were extended to the women of the guild for their generous offering of the supper and the work involved.

one of our youngest employees — and best salesmen, too

This little fellow has been working for us in newspaper ads and on television selling ZEE paper products. From your letters and comments, we gather he is one of our most popular salesmen.

And while ZEE Toilet Tissue and ZEE Paper Towels and all the other quality ZEE paper products are known to large numbers of people here, this phase of our British Columbia operation is but one of many.

For example, at Ocean Falls and at Campbell River, about 2,000 people are employed making newsprint, rotoprint, kraft sulphite pulp, and lumber. Near New Westminster, about 1,300 people manufacture plywood and lumber. On Vancouver Island, more than 1,000 of our people are busy logging, and in our plant on Lulu Island, about 500 of us are making corrugated boxes, paper bags, and many kinds of wrapping for business and industry.

These plants and others, and some 5,900 people, are helping the world to build better, to read newspapers, magazines and books, to enjoy better packaged and better wrapped groceries, drug store items, and many other products.

We're doing all of this right here, and all of us, including our youngest salesman, are quite proud of our place in the British Columbia economic sun.

TIME TO BE EATING B.C.'S FRESH GRASS-FED BEEF

All summer long the cattle have fattened on the nutritious wild grass of British Columbia's cattle country. Just as green grass gives butter its creamy colour, it gives B.C. beef its characteristic creamy fat. Choose B.C. beef and you choose flavour, tenderness and nourishment. Choose B.C. beef now and you choose beef at its prime.

AN IMPORTANT B.C. INDUSTRY

The ranchers of British Columbia are independent business men striving to produce the finest beef at the lowest possible prices. They contribute over $17,000,000 a year to our economy but their importance cannot be measured in dollars alone. Ranching is a vital part of our agricultural industry and B.C. beef is among the best in the world.

"FOLLOW THE BIRDS" to VANCOUVER ISLAND WITH COACH LINES

Vancouver Island Coach Lines is proud to adopt the symbolic seagull, to be displayed on all its motor-coaches wherever they may travel.

For 39 years the white seagull has been a symbol of travel between the Canadian - U.S. mainland and Vancouver Island. "Follow The Birds" has gained wide recognition by tourists everywhere.

Vancouver Island Coach Lines motor-coaches now travel into downtown Vancouver on the "Royal Victorian" service via the B.C. Toll Authority Ferry System. The "Crimson Carpet" service by way of Nanaimo has, since 1955, provided a popular through passenger-service between Victoria and Vancouver.

Our Island-owned and operated Company has long been active in developing tourist travel from continental North America to Vancouver Island. Through our Gray Line Sightseeing Company, which has continent-wide sales outlets, we have made a specialty of package tours and excursion services from the Mainland to the Island. Promotion of these tours is made through travel bureaux and transportation companies throughout North America.

On the local scene, intensive solicitation of tourists to the Island is made at Hotels and Motels in Vancouver, Bellingham, Anacortes, Seattle, Tacoma, Port Angeles, and the approaches to these cities.

In 1960, Coach Lines and Gray Line, Circle Tours, Package Tours and Day Excursions, attracted a total of 13,831 tourists to visit, travel and see Vancouver Island. We believe these visitors would not otherwise have come here. Every tourist area on the Island was advertised and sold by our tours.

Continued vigorous promotion on our Company's part should contribute to a steady increase in tourist travel to our beautiful Island; and will ensure that more and more visitors will FOLLOW THE BIRDS TO VANCOUVER ISLAND.

MAGAZINE DRIVE IS STILL ON

North Saanich high school students are continuing to canvass Sidney and outside areas for magazine subscriptions in its annual drive for funds for the purchase of new band uniforms.

Large sums of money "escape" the community every year by buying subscriptions from outside agencies.

By diverting new subscriptions and renewals through the band, a profit of 40 per cent remains in the community.

Special cards or slips received by mail offering residents a reduced subscription rate will also be accepted at the price stated on the "special" card. The drive ends Friday, Oct. 21.

Many Enjoy Family Night

At the monthly meeting of the Community Club, it was reported that the family night held on September 30 had been very successful, thanks to the excellent entertainment given by Mrs. Ellis and Mr. Parfitt.

Mrs. Ellis, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Parfitt, presented her own vocal arrangements of old favorite songs. These were received with great enthusiasm by an audience of some 300 adults and children. The Community Club is indeed grateful to these busy professional people for giving so willingly of their time and talent.

Among the business transacted at the meeting, was the admission of the boys' soccer team into the Community Club and a cash donation to start them off.

The president, Graham Rice, reported that the film on mouth to mouth artificial respiration will be presented in the Community

Parents Are Entertained At School

Beautifully decorated with fall flowers supplied for the occasion by Pacific Flowers, the activity room at the Sidney school was the setting for the annual welcome tea on October 3.

This tea is held annually by the Sidney P.T.A. and while open to all parents, is to especially welcome mothers having students attending Sidney school for the first time.

The many guests were welcomed by President Mrs. L. R. Christian and Mrs. B. Lassfolk who introduced her staff. Mrs. C. Douma and Mrs. E. Elvadahl, charter members of the Sidney P.T.A., presided at the tea table for the affair which was officially opened by Past President Mrs. V. Cowan.

A beautifully decorated cake, donated by Mrs. Lassfolk as a door prize, was won by Mrs. Hale, and girls from grade 6 acted as very capable baby sitters and waitresses.

Assisting Mrs. W. W. Gardner, the convener, were Mesdames W. Robb, T. Rodd, N. VanSchagen, E. Clarke, F. Storey and N. Knopski.

It was decided that this year the Community Club would sponsor a Christmas parade, which proved so popular last year. W. Fortune who so ably convoked this affair last year, was again named organizer. He was instructed to draw up a program for the next meeting.

The Christmas bingo was set for December 12. Next meeting will be held November 1.

MEISTERSINGERS PRESENT EXCELLENT PROGRAM HERE

By KLAUS MUENTER.

Discriminating music lovers had the opportunity to hear a fine male voice choir on Friday evening at the auditorium of the Sidney elementary school. Although The Meistersingers from Victoria performed their well chosen program before a less than capacity audience, their songs drew sincere applause and their renditions will long be remembered.

The choir consists of 23 members, representing various occupations and professions such as custom officials, provincial government civil servants, teachers, businessmen, an electrical engineer, a lawyer and others.

The group, under the able baton of Ted Bouldon, has appeared on different occasions on TV and radio. This year it will be the fourth time that their taped program will be heard over the CBC network in the Parade of Choirs, which will commence this month.

FORMED IN 1934
The choir was originally founded in 1934 under Frederick King and it was in that year, the newly organized group had its first concert in the old Stacey Hall on Beacon Ave. In 1959 the succeeding conductor, Dudley Wickett, who had directed The Meistersingers since 1938, turned over his baton to Ted Bouldon.

Friday night's performance provided the entertainment of a very efficient choir which can be proud of its versatility. The disciplined voices gave delight to the listeners. The fine interpretation of spiritual, folk, negro, popular and barber shop quartette songs showed a surprisingly wide variety of musical concept.

Choir member Allan Husband, who sang the sad but intriguing negro work song, "Water Boy", earned special applause. His wonderful bass-baritone came close to the original soft sincerity of well known negro singers who, however, are unsurpassable in that type of music.

Another highlight of the one and a half hour concert was the splendid barber shop quartette, known as Betts and Her Buddies, which also rendered the very popular song, "Bye Bye Black Bird".

SOPRANO POPULAR

Mrs. Marjorie Sturgeon, wife of one of the choir members, found an appreciative audience as well. Her beautiful soprano voice showed a wide range of expression and Tea, coffee and small cakes, with soft drinks for the children, were provided by the Pender Chamber of Commerce, under the expert convener of Mrs. Olive Auchterlonie and her helpers. Campsite No. 1 was used to brew the beverage, with water taken from the new well. The happy gathering bespoke the genuine pleasure of all, in the occasion.
